

This Big Experiment Lab is organized and run by The Mad Lab Rabbits, the demo team for Looney Labs. Please help keep this space fun for everyone by following these simple rules...

LAB RULES AND POLICIES

- Have FUN! Have FUN! Have FUN! Have FUN!
- No one under age 12 should be in the Lab without a parent accompanying them. This is for the child's safety as well as our own liability. Encourage the parents to come and play too!
- No sleeping in the lab. Please go back to your hotel room if you need a nap, then come back and play!
- Tickets are required to play in our space – if you want to hang out with us all weekend, please buy a Big Experiment Ribbon!
- If you just want to hang out and play, you can borrow demo copies of any Looney Labs game. Return demo copies to the front table.
- Clean up after yourself and others. Please respect others fun.
- The Top Rabbit (purple lab coat) is in charge. Listen to them. The Tournament Director (turquoise lab coat) is 2nd in command.
- "Staff Only" space is for Rabbits only please. Also note, Looney Labs is not responsible for anything you leave in the Lab. Help keep an eye on everybody's stuff please.
- Working Rabbits: Please wear your lab coat when on duty. Feel free to also wear your lab coat at any other time – if you're not on the schedule, you WILL NOT be asked to do demos.
- Have FUN! If you're not having fun, please let us know so we can work to fix things and make it fun again!
